

SUASA stands by orphans

Wednesday, 08 October 2008

Suasa Community Organization, a social welfare establishment, at South Charoti, Satkania undertook many activities to help the local poor and orphans recently, says a press release.

These include among other things arranging discussions on significance of Ramadan, hosting iftar parties and distributing Eid dresses among local orphans and their family members.

Suasa Community Organization, a social welfare establishment, at South Charoti, Satkania undertook many activities to help the local poor and orphans recently, says a press release.

These include among other things arranging discussions on significance of Ramadan, hosting iftar parties and distributing Eid dresses among local orphans and their family members.

As many as 120 orphans and their family members were given Eid dresses by the organization.

Those present on the occasion include Ehsanul Karim, Executive Director of the organization, Arifa Sultana, Finance Secretary and other local elites.