

'Guerrilla' in Chittagong

Monday, 02 May 2011

As in Dhaka, 'Guerrilla', a film on Liberation War, has thrilled the viewers of Chittagong too.

Screening of the film began at 11am on Sunday at the Theatre Institute of the port city.

There will be two shows a day between 3:30pm and 6:30pm until May 7. Besides, a special show will be arranged around 10.30am on Fridays.

As in Dhaka, 'Guerrilla', a film on Liberation War, has thrilled the viewers of Chittagong too.

Screening of the film began at 11am on Sunday at the Theatre Institute of the port city.

There will be two shows a day between 3:30pm and 6:30pm until May 7. Besides, a special show will be arranged around 10.30am on Fridays.

Tickets are available at Tk 50 and Tk 100.

After Sunday's show, director Nasir Uddin Yusuf said the film is aimed at giving the new generation a deep insight into Liberation War.

Urging the city dwellers to watch the film, the eminent artiste said: "The film is banned for the anti-independence elements."

Source: bdnews24.com